

As a consumer of digital content, I have a grave concern about the proposed Broadcast Flag.

I am a law-abiding consumer who believes that piracy should be prevented and prosecuted. However, this proposal comes at the cost of prohibiting me from making legal, personal use of my content. The FCC should be working to protect all consumers rather than enable the Content Corporations, who seek to restrict consumer rights. In the case of the broadcast flag, it seems that it will have little effect on piracy. So, while I may be required to purchase consumer electronic devices that cost more and allow me to do less, piracy will not be diminished.

I urge you to protect "fair use" and not follow the dictates of the big studios.

Thank you.
